RAILWAY HOUSE, MILTON, MASS.

The subscriber respectfully informs the public that he has taken a lease of this extensive house, and newly refitted and furnished it throughout with every article necessary for the accommodation and comfort of travellers, convivial parties and boarders.

A beautiful grove with pleasant walks, a garden, swing, &c. are connected with this establishment, and its proximity to the city renders it an inviting place of resort for those who may desire to spend a short time away from the confusion and sultry air of a crowded place of business.

The bowling alleys have been newly relaid, and good attendants provided.

The larder will be stored with the best of provisions, and such delicacies as the seasons afford. The bar will also be kept supplied with choice wines and liquors. Good stabling for horses.

The Dorchester and Milton line of stages leave for Boston every morning and noon, and return at noon and evening.

jy25 eptf SILAS HALL.

WARREN HOUSE,

At the junction of Merrimack and Friend Streets.

This establishment having now gone through extensive and thorough repairs and additions, will compare with any other public house of its size. It has been furnished from top to bottom with new furniture, bedding, carpeting, &c., and is now open for the accommodation of travellers.

It is the intention to conduct the House after the mode of the most approved public houses—and every effort will be made personally, and by well tried assistants, to please his former custom and those who may visit the Warren House for the first time.

Extensive stables, with pure water, is attached to the establishment. AZARIAH PROCTOR.

jy28 eptf

THE SUBSCRIBER, late of the Warren Hotel, Woburn, informs his friends and the public, that he has opened a new Hotel in Cohasset, in the centre of the town, near the Meeting-House, where he would be happy to wait on all those who may favor him with their patronage.

☞ Ladies and Gentlemen, with their families, can be accommodated with board on reasonable terms.

Stages run to and from the house three times a-day, to meet the Hingham Steamboat General Lincoln.

N. B. Good Saddle Horses and Carriages may be had at all times. THOMAS SMITH.

FOR SALE.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE IN CHARLESTOWN.

Three pleasant and convenient Houses, situated in Franklin street, about ten minutes walk from Warren Bridge. The first, containing about 3200 feet of land, is built of wood, has a parlor, sitting room, kitchen, wash-room, and seven chambers, a good cellar paved with brick, good rain and well water brought into the house, out houses, and a large yard with fruit trees.

The second, of brick, contains about 2000 feet of land, has a parlor, sitting-room, wash-room, five chambers, a cellar, paved with brick, good well and rain water brought into the house, a good yard and out-houses.

The third is of wood, and contains about 3000 feet of land, has a parlor, sitting-room, cellar kitchen, five chambers—a good cellar, out-house, and a large yard, suitable for a small garden.

Said Houses are in complete repair, and will be sold separate or together. Conditions of payment will be 25 per cent. down, the remainder in one, two and three years, with interest, secured by mortgage on the property, if desired by the purchaser.

Also—a lot of Land, containing about 4000 feet, on the corner of Maine and Franklin streets, with a good building, suitable for a merchant or mechanic, which will be sold on the above-mentioned terms of payment.

For further particulars, inquire of S. VARNEY, Charlestown, or of H. DAVIDSON, No 37 Long wharf, Boston.

HOLLAND'S LIFE OF VAN BUREN.—Holland's Life of Van Buren is published by BELKNAP & HAMMERSLEY, Hartford, Conn., and sold by the principal Booksellers in the United States.

We wish the work an extensive circulation, and recommend it in strong terms to all those who wish to learn the truth respecting the political course and opinions of Mr Van Buren. * * * The work abounds with the most sound and radically Democratic doctrines, well worthy the attention of the reader.—Washington Globe.

To the high qualities of impartial truth and justice, it adds the charms of a pure, vigorous and manly style. It is full without being minute, and clever without parade or pretension.

The author is obviously of the old republican school. Ultra, indeed, in some respects—but sound, clear, and true to the principles of Democracy. Except in the writings of Mr Jefferson, and in the speech of Mr Van Buren on the power of the Vice President to call to order, we do not recollect to have read any where a clearer exposition of the origin of parties, or to have seen the distinction taken with greater fidelity, between the principles and governing views, which however obscured by circumstances or concealed by design, so radically divide the Democracy and Aristocracy of this country.—Albany Argus.

We most sincerely recommend this volume to the perusal of every individual searcher after the truth in relation to Mr Van Buren.—Boston Morning Post.

As a literary work this volume may be referred to by all—as a political one our friends should read it with pride.—Baltimore Republican.

Written in a chaste and beautiful style, and breathing the true spirit of sound, uncompromising democracy.—Hampden Whig.

This book ought to be generally circulated, and carefully read by the American people.—Nashville Union.

Setting aside political considerations, it is a work fraught with the most useful lessons to the youth of our country—narrating, as it does, the triumphs of untiring industry and perseverance in raising the subject of it, from poverty and obscurity, to the loftiest position which an American can reach.—Pennsylvanian.

It is impossible for any honest man, opposed to Mr Van Buren, to read this well written book, without feeling his prejudices yielding every moment to respect for the man.—Boston Advocate.

The work is replete with historical facts, and such a book should be read by every young American—in short, a text book of Democracy.—Patriot and Democrat.

The whole political career of Mr Van Buren is here clearly developed; and the enemies of that distinguished man may here find a refutation of all the charges which have been brought against him.—N. Y. Times.

Party history is probably as familiar to us as to most other public writers; but with regard to what is called Mr Van Buren's non-committal system, we are better acquainted with the charge than the proof. The extracts which are skilfully introduced into Professor Holland's volume, convey unequivocal opinions on nearly all the rife public questions. There is less of real frankness in the two responses of Gen. Harrison to the Antimasons, than in Mr Van Buren's epistles.—Walsh's National Gazette. 2t au22

LANCASTER HOUSE FOR SALE OR TO LET.

The subscriber, in consequence of the ill health of himself and family, has concluded to relinquish his business, and offers to sell or rent his establishment for a term of years, and give immediate possession.

The House has been recently repaired and fitted up in the most thorough manner. The furniture was new last season, and the house is genteely furnished throughout, and is in perfect order. The furniture will be sold at a reasonable price. The central situation of this house, in connection with the travel from every quarter—the numerous daily communications with the city—together with the unsurpassed beauty of the town, and its healthy location, are objects too well known to need further comment.

Gentlemen who are desirous of purchasing or renting this establishment are invited to call and examine the premises, where the terms will be made known.

POETRY.

SIMILES.

"Quantus amor!"—
"Amor omnibus idem."—Virgil.

I love to hear the shrieking wind,
Magnificently wild!
Like the melodious music of
A bastinadoed child.

I love the darkness of the night,
When through it mountains loom—
Like laurels elevated high,
Amid a cellar's gloom.

I love the sea, engulphing whom
Its maddened might contemns—
Like a vast spit-box, swallowing
Expectorated gems.

I love to hear the thunder burst
O'er woodland, plain, and hill—
Like the loud notes of hungry swine
Petitioning for swill.

I love the lowly violet, too,
It does not grow by rule,
Sits meekly as my Sally, when
Upon her milking-stool.

I love to see the stars look down
With all the vivid glow—
Of the gray oculars of cats,
Fixed on a destined foe.

But most, I love the snowy clouds'
Tumultuous rich fold—
Like steam above a coffee-pot,
Or powdered wig of old.

I love all nature—say not, then,
Aught beautiful, I spurn—
I love to see sweet woman's eye,
And tallow-candles burn. NAT.

POLICE COURT.

Rum Courtship.—Mr John Hickman, Mrs Elizabeth Baldwin, and Miss Catharine Smith, had been living for some time past together in one room, and the officer thought it would be cruel to part them; he therefore arrested all three, at the instance of Mr George Cat hole—a very queer name, by the way, for a Christian, even if he be a Dutch Christian, as was the case with Mynheer Cat-hole, the complainant. One of the witnesses against the triumvirate of topers was named Thistle, and he proved himself to be a sharp thorn in their sides. Another said that Mrs Baldwin had been paying her addresses to Mr. Hickman, and had persuaded him to metamorphose her from Mrs Baldwin, widow, into Mrs Hickman, wife. The last time this witness made a call upon the loving pair, they were curled up in each other's arms, and seated on a three-legged chair, without a back. Miss Smith was the daughter of Mrs Baldwin, and appeared to belong to the equivocal age—from twenty to thirty-five. Though not so old, she was full as ugly as her mother, and, like her, had a design upon the liberty and person of Master Hickman.—But the old one, who had been twice a wife and twice a widow, had had her wits sharpened by these frequent alternations of fortune, and accordingly knew better how to work her cards against the youth so sorely beset by mother and daughter, and soon became the favored rival in his affections. The disappointed daughter, disheartened by her mother's success, addicted herself to suicide—the sovereign panacea for love-sickness. Twice she drank deep of a potent poison, but Death refused to obey the summons; for he is like his mysterious mimic "Sleep:"—

"He, like the world, his ready visit pays,
Where fortune smiles. The wretched he forsakes."

In lingo-medico, her stomach, impervious as epidermis of rhinoceros, would neither contract nor corrugate; for verily grief or grog—or both commingled in equal parts—had rendered her abdominal viscera poison proof. She was therefore in a terrible pickle—too late for the steamboat—couldn't get a passage across the river Styx. Life was insupportable to her, and Death unattainable: she could not hang herself—a hempen exit was too criminal, and horridly unromantic. She could not drown herself; for she had ever entertained an insurmountable internal and external oppugnation to a watery element. She had always been in the habit of "qualifying" the water she used—took the chill off—thought the myriads of animalculæ it contained would be less deleterious if preserved in spirits. Being debarred a corporeal death, Catharine then essayed a "living death," as a substitute; and, as she could not drown, she kept herself thoroughly soaked, and continually "steeped her senses in forgetfulness." This was a happy expedient—it saved funeral expenses, for it is not the practice here to bury those who "have not shuffled off the mortal coil," even if they be "dead in the spirit" to all intents and purposes.

But it may be asked, how did the mother outstrip the daughter in the heart of Hickman? Was it

"That with some mixture powerful o'er the blood;
Or with some drug conjured to this effect
She wrought upon him?"

The testimony of a handsome and genteel Dutch lady may in some degree satisfy these natural interrogatories.—She hints at a free appliance of a species of magic or animal magnetism, that has laid many a tall fellow low in the dust, with thick tongue, glassy eye, and aching hair. The way the poor fellow was drugged is melancholly, if there be any meaning in the following simple dialogue:—

Court—My good woman, you have had an opportunity to witness the daily habits of these three people: pray tell me, if you ever saw either of them drink at any time?

Lady—No, mine goot sair—I no see dem drink one time—dey all de time drink, and is no one any time not drink none.

Court—Does the eldest woman drink much?

Lady—No sair, she drink more than is that be—she drink big as she's daughter.

Court—How often does the daughter drink?

Lady—(shrugging up her shoulders)—I can no count you that—she neffer stop drink—she is one long drink all de day—so it can no be often, cause she no begin but once in de morning as soon as de shop be commence sell de rum and de other tings.

Court—What sort of a man is Hickman?

Lady—O he one goot peace man, and is no make a noise; but de mooder will make him be marry her for one hoosband. So she get him one large round bootle all full big of rum, and she make him take it—he say, I shall takes no more, you makee me droonk—but she say, O yes mine dear, you must take some more—so she make him drink till he be droonk as one hoag, and she call him she's hoosband, and kiss him round de deck, and den he no know where he was, and forget heself, and so he kiss her too, and den dey kiss altogedder. O she one bad woman—no goot—and she make noise, and make no peace, and slam te door, and jump, and tamble on te floor, and screech, and cry te moorder! moorder! and den she say she no care for te tain Futch people what live all below—yes, sair—she calls us all one tain Futch people; but he make no noise neffar no time. But she make te missheif—she try make te trouble wid my hoosband and me. Mine Cot! she say to me, my hoosband like her more better than he is me; and she say my hoosband kiss her more time than he is kiss me. Dat is te way she go make misshief. To tink my hoosband kiss one droonken wrush as is she!

It was very clear, that the good lady wished to save poor Hickman, and his honor was equally willing to give him a chance to cut a corrupt connection, and therefore discharged him, but seat the mother and daughter off for four months.

BOSTON MORNING POST.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 23, 1836.

"In the state of things at present existing in this country, my personal wishes are, to withdraw my name from the place it occupies before the public." DANIEL WEBSTER.

"A vote of the Senate of the United States has attached to my name a disgrace which I am fully convinced no time or no efforts of mine will ever be able to efface."—Extract from Gen. Harrison's Letter dated July 16, 1816. See Niles' Reg., Vol. 10, page 454.

☞ We copy the following article from the Albany Argus of Aug. 10. Since its original publication the prophecy it contains that the Loco Focos would yet be found in the ranks of the Whigs, is partly fulfilled, for they are already assailing Mr Van Buren's letter to Mr Williams, and manifesting a concurrence in opinion with his most bitter opponents.

"We gave to our readers yesterday the correspondence between the Loco Focos and Col. Young. We did so, not because we regard the course of that faction as a matter of importance in itself, but because it is proper that the republicans of the state should know what that course is to be, and with what designs.

If any republican has doubted for a moment that the designs of the Loco Foco partizans are selfish and disorganizing, and that they seek, under the pretence of an ultra devotion to the cause of equal rights, the prostration of the democratic party, and the political elevation of demagogues, whose professions are to be received in lieu of nearly every qualification, he will scarcely look beyond the rejoinder to Col. Young for the removal of every doubt on this subject.

In that missile, penned, we venture to affirm, by as fierce and unscrupulous an opponent of the republican ascendancy in this state and in the general administration, and as decided but covert a friend of the federal and combined opposition, as any that have made it their vocation to assail the former, from the war struggle to the present day, they say of the dominant democratic party of the state, that "the open leaders, the secret movers of the party, and their minions, comprise a body of men whose political turpitude it would be difficult to parallel, in any age or country"—that these chartered democrats, with the assistance of a secret society, hired presses, the slaves of office, and the known usages, can always caucus and pack the general and nominating committees to promote the objects of aristocracy"—that "Tammany Hall has become the nursery of brokers, where federalists, monopolists and corruptionists are fostered"—that "the capitol has long been a manufactory of stocks for gambling, at the expense of the rights and welfare of the people"—and that "the administrative departments of the state have exhibited the spectacle of concocting and delivering a democratic message, without the virtue or consistency of acting in accordance with their own maxims and recommendations."

This is the language of a faction which, assuming to be more democratic than those who have sustained the democracy against every assault of Bankism, Federalism and Nullification, will be found, we do not doubt, in the ranks of the federal and bank aristocracy, and in opposition to the democratic party, long before the present campaign shall have closed. Indeed, their language is the mere echo of the opposition; their course is in perfect keeping with their's; and their imputations (calumnious and false as they are) against the republican "leaders," usages, presses and administration, are copied with the utmost avidity and delight by the opposition journals. If any of our friends believe that the politicians who direct these movements, are entitled to be conciliated—their schemes of disorganization to be overlooked—their cormorant desire of office to be gratified—or their efforts to defeat the regular tickets, to be qualified as the honest views of misguided men—they deceive themselves. The leaders and instigators of the faction are as hostile to the democratic party and its ascendancy, as Dudley Selden, Erastus Root, Isaac R. Van Duzer, and their associates in apostacy; or as M. M. Noah, J. W. Webb, Charles King, and other leaders of the opposition—and will be found openly, as they are now covertly, in conjunction with both.

The letter of Col. Young is able and direct—characteristics which belong to the productions of that gentleman. We conceive, however, that the facts neither warrant the extent nor the severity of his views. We were not a little surprised, however, to find them so much to the taste of the Daily Advertiser; since the political friends of that print voted for most of the propositions to which exceptions are taken, and particularly as it and its friends urged the passage and pretended to be warmly in favor of a measure by which, according to Col. Young, "a corporation of the present time, without incurring the expense and risk of war, and simply by corrupting the easy virtue of legislators, has plundered three millions from future generations."

The Lies of the Oppostion.—The opposition have often asserted that Gen. Jackson turned out all those opposed to him when he came into office, when the real truth is that he did not dismiss one quarter of them. De Tocqueville, in his Democracy in America, adopts the lie, and states that "of all the officers whose commissions were revocable in the employ of the United States, Gen. Jackson left not a single man in place after the first year of his election"! He ought to be obliged to his Whig informants for their information.

Whiggism.—The editor of the Springfield Republican objects to Mr G. Bancroft's definition of Whiggism,—"That it perpetuates established wrong, on the plea of vested right," &c. He remarks that this is undoubtedly Whiggism as Mr Bancroft understands it, but it does not answer him by a definition of his own. We will offer a definition which is possibly more correct than Mr B's.—Whiggism is a political doctrine, which, like the Kaleidiscope, at every new movement presents a new image to the eye.

☞ The following Resolution, among many other excellent ones, was passed by the Democratic Convention of Cumberland County, Me. held at Gray, on the 15th inst:—

"Resolved, That the constitutional tenure of judicial officers in this State, is at war with the whole doctrine of accountability to the people—the safest guaranty of integrity in the public officer;—and ought to be so amended as to conform to the theory of official tenure adopted by the constitution, in relation to the Executive and Legislative departments of our government; and that we will cordially unite with our fellow citizens in other parts of the State, in this most essential measure of constitutional reform."

The Watchman asks—"Was not Mr. Madison once selected as an electoral condidate against Jackson?" Yes; and he DECLINED the proffered honor—alleging that the relations he had sustained to Gen. Jackson, and the repeated proofs he had given him of his confidence and friendship, forbade his acting in that capacity.—Burlington Sentinel.

"We have the authority of a letter written by Mr Woodbury, the Secretary of the Treasury, for asserting, with the most unreserved confidence, that it is the present determination of Gen. Jackson and his advisers to PREVENT THE DISTRIBUTION BILL FROM GOING INTO OPERATION AT ALL HAZARDS—and that to effect their object, advantage is to be taken of a quasi war, got up for the purpose with Mexico, which may afford the President a pretext for ASSUMING THE RESPONSIBILITY OF WITHHOLDING THE SURPLUS MONEY FROM DISTRIBUTION."—Boston Atlas.

☞ The above assertion is A BASE FALSEHOOD; we denounced it as such on Saturday, and repeat that denunciation to-day. THE ATLAS HAS NOT THE AUTHORITY IT ASSERTS IT POSSESSES FOR ITS STATEMENT. If any "gentlemen of veracity" dare certify that the letter of Mr Woodbury authorizes the publication made by the Atlas, we will prove them to be as gross violaters of truth as that Journal is itself.

"The President of an Insurance Office in State street," who, if the Transcript is to be believed, received his information in confidence, and as a friendly premonition, does not, in our humble opinion, maintain a very honorable position in this business. The amount of it is, that that the Atlas and its coadjutors have got caught in the trap they set for others.

When the Atlas made its first publication upon this subject, we called immediately upon Dr. Waterhouse to ascertain its truth. The Doctor was astonished at the assertions of the Atlas, and at once exclaimed that they were entirely erroneous. He attempted to find the letter in question, but his papers having been recently disarranged, preparatory to painting his house, he was unable to then, but authorized us to make the statement we did.—Yesterday he was so fortunate as to come across it. He was mistaken in saying that the subjects of Mexico and the Surplus Revenue were not alluded to—for the Secretary says, relative to the latter subject, "MY BEST EFFORTS WILL BE GIVEN TO EXECUTE THE LAW FAITHFULLY"—but not in the least as to the tenor of the letter. It affords no authority for the publication in the Atlas that

"It is the present determination of Gen. Jackson and his advisers to PREVENT THE DISTRIBUTION BILL FROM GOING INTO OPERATION AT ALL HAZARDS—and that to effect their object, advantage is to be taken of a quasi war, got up for the purpose with Mexico, which may afford the President a pretext for ASSUMING THE RESPONSIBILITY OF WITHHOLDING THE SURPLUS MONEY FROM DISTRIBUTION"— and hence the Atlas is guilty of an INFAMOUS FALSEHOOD.

☞ The New York Commercial Advertiser says it shall oppose Van Buren until he substitutes for the visionary theories of JEFFERSON the sound views of Hamilton! Here is the creed of the Whigs—Hamilton wanted the President and the Senate elected for life—the President to appoint the Governors of the States, and the British Consititution adopted instead of our own—these are the "sound views" the Whigs want Mr. Van Buren to adopt instead of the "visionary theory" of our present plain republican system! Let the Democracy of the country think of this declaration. If they would have a President and Senate elected for life—if they would be deprived of all voice in selecting their governors, and, in short, submit to the rule of a government possessing the most odious features of an oppressive monarchy, let them support one of the score of candidates presented to them by the Whigs for the Presidency; but if they would have their government administered upon the pure principles of Democracy—of Liberty and Equality—they will vote for Martin Van Buren, a firm believer in Jefferson's "visionary theory" that man is capable of self government, and that rulers are the servants not the masters of the people.

The N. Y. Evening Post remarks that Mr Van Buren's "splendid English coach" was made by Brewster, at New Haven, and is rather an awkward vehicle; Mr Van Buren's "splendid English horses" are thorough paced Knickerbockers, raised in West Chester.—Mr Van Buren's "English servants in splendid liveries," are an Englishman and an Irishman, who never wore a livery while in Mr Van Buren's service, nor did Mr Van Buren ever have a servant in livery, in his life.—So much in answer to the meanest and silliest of all the whig calumny.

Centennial Celebration.—We perceive upon looking over the list of the names of the Committee of Arrangements, appointed to prepare for the Centennial Celebration of the ALUMNI OF HARVARD UNIVERSITY, that not a single member of the Administration party is included. We know several graduates from this University who are members of the Democratic party. Was their total exclusion from the Committee of Arrangements accidental or designed?

We were told by an elderly farmer from the country, that on the morning of the frost which occurred about a fortnight since, he mowed a field of grass that was completely stiffened by freezing, and that the ice accumulated upon the blade; of his scythe a circumstance, he adds, which he never knew to happen before in the summer, though he has mowed grass above thirty years.

A Hit at the Epaulettes.—Upon the return of a company of volunteers from the Indian war to their native county in Georgia, the ladies gave them a treat, and one of them the following sentiment:—

By Miss Cornelia A. Wingfield: The private soldier, whose common lot it is to bear the burden of the battle, while its officers bear away its honors; the fair of the land will extend to him a more righteous judgment, and a more equal reward.

Abbott came near being suffocated while playing the Gamester, at Buffalo, the other night. The person who handed him a phial gave him the spirit of bergamot, which took away his breath, and obliged him to drink two tumblers of water before he could articulate.

☞ A man has been arrested in New York for stealing an umbrella! This arrest is in direct opposition to the Common Law, for it has been the universal practice to steal umbrellas, ever since the shower at the time of the flood.

The Boston Centinel says that Mr. Van Buren's reply to the interrogatories of Mr. Williams, is non-committal, while the N. Y. Commercial Advertiser admits that "there is no non-committal in it."

☞ The whole of the Reply to Judge Thacher's charge to the Jury in Whitmarsh's case of libel, is contained in our last Statesman. A few extra copies may be had by application at the Counting Room.

The Courier says that Mr Armstrong has signified to some of his friends, his intention to decline a re-election to the office of Mayor.

Destruction of Commerce!—They have received only a little rising nine millions of dollars at the New York Custom House, for the past nine months.

Mrs. Duff took a Benefit at Lexington, Ky. on the 11th instant.

WESTERN ELECTIONS.

We have heard, partially, from Alabama, Arkansas, Illinois and Missouri, and certainly from Louisiana. They are all "true as steel," and up-to-the-hub for the Presidential ticket of the democratic party. We feel authorized to say to our eastern friends, who never have been deceived by us, that Mr. Van Buren will receive the support of nine of the ten western States.—Louisville Advertiser.

From the New Orleans Bee, Aug. 8.

The democratic party, though apparently without leaders or orgaanization, without committees of correspondence, and those signs of preparation usually exhibited on the eve of an important election, never was so strong, so well united, and so hearty in the cause, as it is at this moment. Our letters from the country are full of encouragement and assurances of success, based upon data which cannot deceive. For obvious reasons we forbear to enter into details. It is enough that we are satisfied that the result of the election will be highly auspicious to the democratic cause.

From the Missouri Argus, Aug. 5.

Hurrah for Cape Girardeau and Stoddard counties!! Watkins, the half brother of Henry Clay, defeated by that old veteran democrat Abram Bird, Esq!!

We learn by a letter from Perry county, that Gen. Watkins has been defeated by Mr. Bird, after a sharp contest. We were prepared to hear this, as news from Jackson had been received as late as 4 o'clock on Monday, stating that the venerable Bird was leading Watkins in fine style.

News from Potosi gives Ashley on Monday 81 and Boggs 80 votes.

And St. Genevieve too!—We stop the press to say that we have just heard that our friend Clement C. Detchemendy, Esq., is re-elected to the House of Representatives—majority 25. Hurrah for Van Buren!!

Pike and Perry Counties have done nobly.

In Illinois our party is doing well—our friends have succeeded in all the counties heard from. A strong effort was made to break down Gen. Semple, but it was unsuccessful.

Warren Bridge.—According to the Bunker Hill Aurora, an accurate account was kept from daylight to half past nine o'clock in the evening, of the amount of one day's travel. From this account it appears that the total amount of toll, were it not free, would have been $252,66. Previous to the erection of Warren Bridge, the average amount of tolls at the Charles River Bridge was $85 per day. After the erection of Warren Bridge, the average amount of toll per day taken at both Bridges, was $90. Hence it seems that the amount of toll, at the present time, which would be collected on Warren Bridge, if it were not free, would be nearly four times as much as before; and nearly three times as much as was taken on both bridges, on an average number of years, since the erection of the Warren.—The Aurora adds, that about 4000 foot passengers pass over the Warren daily. On the same day that the account of travel was taken on Warren free Bridge, thirty-eight vessels passed through the draw, up or down the river.

American Monthly Magazine, August, 1836—Otis, Broaders & Co., Boston—George Dearborn, New York.—We must make allowance for any deficiencies in the present number of this journal, since it was published in haste, after the proper August number had been destroyed by fire. Among the articles destroyed which are not in the present number, we observe, by the advertisement, one on 'Modern German Literature," and another on "The Future." We mention these, because there is no philosophical article in the present number, a description of essays in which our Magazines are lamentably deficient—and the talent for writing well in this department is evidently not one of the characteristics of our literary tribe—almost all our literary men, we will not except even the best of them, write like women.

Richardson's Dictionary of the English Language, Vol. 1, part 6th.—This Dictionary appears to be destined to supercede all other dictionaries of the English Language. It is said to contain all that is valuable in preceding works of the kind, and likewise to supply all their omissions. Every word is not only defined, but exemplified by a variety of illustrations from classical English authors. It appears to meet the unanimous approbation of all the English periodical critics, and we have found nothing but commendation in the remarks of the American press respecting it. The London Quarterly Review terms it "a dictionary such as perhaps no other language could ever boast."

The Transcript is a funny fellow—he says that he met "Tom Comer" yesterday!

The sugar cane bids fair to yield in abundance this season, at the South.

Insanity.—A young man named James Dunn, was seen whilst standing on a pier at the East River, to deliberately cut his throat from ear to ear, and then throw himself into the river. Immediately efforts were made to rescue him, which he attempted to frustrate, but he was taken out alive and carried to the City Hospital, where his wound was dressed.—N. Y. Star.

Collision with a Steamboat.—Schr. Orbit, Caleb, from Salem for Portland, with 17 passengers on board, including 11 ladies, was run foul of, on Thursday evening last, about 9 o'clock, by the Steamboat Independence, from Portland for Boston, and had a narrow escape from total destruction.

Forgeries to the amount of $17,000 were discovered last week to have been committed by a man named Allen, of the firm of Bradbury & Allen, cabinet makers, in Lexington. They were upon the father and uncle of Allen, who has absconded. No imputation whatever rests upon Mr. Bradbury.—Transcript.

A cottage building in Dorchester, near Dr Harris's church, occupied by Mr Jones, was struck by lightning during the severe thunder storm on Saturday morning, and severely shattered. What is remarkable, no person was injured, though the floor was torn up under the bed where Mr and Mrs Jones were sleeping at the time.—Times.

POLICE COURT.

Unfortunate Raffle.—About two o'clock on Sunday morning, a most terrible fight took place in and about a Mr Brady's house, in Dedham street, at the South End. The watch, in company with a strong posse of the neighbors, whose slumbers had been disagreeably disturbed by the boxing and bellowing of the combattants, made a descent upon the house and captured seven, whose blood-stained countenances bore gory evidence that they had participated in the furious fray. It appeared from the statements of the rioters, that Brady was about to leave the city, and was then engaged in disposing of his furniture, by a raffle, at a quarter of a dollar a throw. A dispute arose about the number turned up by one of the throwers, and a word and a blow followed, but the blow came first, which resulted in a general knock down—a very legitimate origin for a fight, most indubitably. One or two of the more wolfy offered an ineffectual resistance, but the whole seven were securely snaked off to the watch-house, by the citizen-guard. Their mellifluous names were Anthony M'Laughlin, and James Tighe, and William Nivens, and Michael Goff, and Roger Finney, and Michael Fitzsimmons, and John Moran. Their arraignment made a grand display: On the left, or goat side, the seven prisoners were drawn up in a line; and on the right, or sheep side, no less than nine witnesses, with uplifted hands, were drawn up in an opposite line, which outflanked the "goats."—Fiercely did the hostile ranks scowl defiance, as they faced each other

"In battle's magnificently stern array."

The brave goats were as undaunted as injured innocence could make them—they looked like strangers to fear, and apprehended no danger from the formidable force arrayed against them; but besides a superiority of numbers, the witnesses had another advantage, that the prisoners seemed to have overlooked. They were were armed with oaths—a most powerful weapon in a court-house; but Tighe—the smallest of the lot—but a bantom—a game fowl—even defied their oaths. He said that "a woman had hit one of his comrades with a bloody black-bottomed bottle a blow on the nose." Three witnesses said he changed his clothes to escape detection—he politely told them they lied, and called upon a witness to prove the contrary. The witness took the stand, and, after stating that he was asleep when the fight occurred, he very unceremoniously expressed it to be his opinion, that the witnesses against his friend Tighe were all a pack of —— liars entirely.

Court—You may stand down witness. Tighe you had better call somebody who knows something about it.

Tighe—Morris come along here, and say that I have no clothes but what I have on me now.

Morris—I saw James Tighe with the same clothes on he has now, at 10 o'clock on the night.

Court—Stand down—there was plenty of time to change the dress from 10 till 2 in the morning.

Tighe—Grennen, you saw me after ten—come along inside here, and sartify the same.

Two voices, [in half-whisper in the rear]—Grennen say ye saw him at 12 o'clock at night in his present dress—don't be blunderin, but say it aff straight.

Grennen—[shaking like a feather in a breeze, and his finger resting on his nose, to keep his elbow up while he took the oath]—I saw that same James Tighe at 12 o'clock in the night, with his own clothes on—the only clothes he had—it was in his own boarding-house.

This last fact was a little too hard a ticket, for if Tighe was in his boarding-house at 12, how came he to be arrested at 2 o'clock, in Dedham street, for "doing no harm to nobody," as he declared? Mr Grennen was requested to sit down, and the attention of the Court was directed to

"A form that midmost in the circle stood
Half visible—his face deformed with scars,
And foul with blood."

The object was William Nivens—when the watch entered the room, he was laying on the floor, wrapped up in a sheet, and apparently past praying for. They inquired of a woman, what ailed him. She replied, that "he had taken too much," meaning to convey the idea that he was only drunk; but upon uncovering his face, they found that "he had taken too much" pounding, and was faint from the loss of blood.

The court did not use much ceremony in summing up, but said—"These disturbances and raffles must be put an end to. I find all the defendants guilty, and order them to pay a fine of $6.00 each, with costs."

Fitzsimmons was the only one to remonstrate against the punishment, and said—"Troth, and if I'm to pay six dollars for being out late of a night, it stands me in hand to get home arly, I'm thinking."

A man, who officiated as banker, thought "it altogether mane to be meddling with seven hard-working men, who had a bit of an innocent scrape among themselves."

Richmond Enquirer.—The last Enquirer contains the announcement that the names of "RITCHIE & COOK" are taken down from the head of that paper, and have been succeeded by the old name of THOMAS RITCHIE." The veteran editor has purchased out the interest of Mr. Cook in the establishment, and has become sele proprietor and editor of the Enquirer. He addresses himself to the task of discharging his increased duties, apparently, with all the fervor of youth—promising improvement in all the departments connected with the paper. Mr. R. says:—"We have stronger motives than ever to devote ourselves to the service of the paper—and no effort shall be spared to make it worthy of the public support."

A most melancholy event has just excited deep interest in the fashionable circles of Paris. The amiable Madame de Thecisy, sister to Madame de Caraman and the Duchess de Valombroso, had proceeded for the benefit of her health to the Eaux-bonnes waters in the Pyrenees. A few days ago she had alighted from her carriage, and her child had just left her to join her mother and husband, who were walking before her, when the huge fragment of a rock, which some workmen were sapping, rolled down upon the unfortunate lady and hurled her into a deep ravine, where her mangled remains were found some hours after. The workmen were so appalled at the catastrophe that they fled to Spain.

Dreadful Accident.—The Salem Landmark states that on Friday afternoon, Mr. Jewett Maxfield, while engaged in turning a drum, upon the shaft of a steam engine, was killed instantaneously. He was at work near the balance wheel, which was situated very close to a square post or standard. It is supposed that he made some misstep, by which his head was thrown between the balance wheel and the post. His head was mangled in the most shocking manner, one side of his face and the top of his head being almost severed from his body. Mr. Maxfield has left a wife and two children.

Out of what meterials may not a woman's love, and especially that of a mother, find sustenance? Other loves may pine away upon the sterile wilderness of life, where there are no flowers to cull, no fruit to gather, and no harvest to be reaped; but the love of a mother can subsist upon the bitter roots of unkindness and neglect, and maintain its freshness and its vigour by drinking of the waters of affliction.

Excerpt.—The following profound remark is found in the ruminations of P. Pilgarlick Pigwiggin, Esq.

'Life's like a field of blackberry and raspberry bushes. Mean people squat down and pick the fruit no matter how they black their fingers; while genius proud and perpendicular, strides fiercely on and gets nothing but scratches, and holes tore in its trowsers.'

Organization of the Post Office Department under the late act of Congress.

The duties of the Department are divided, and distributed as follows, viz:

CONTRACT OFFICE.

To this office are assigned the duties of arranging the connexions of the mails on all the mail routes fixing in the United States, adjusting the speed of the mails, on the frequency of their trips, and the mode of conveyance, making out advertisements for mail service, receiving the bids, preparing them for the action of the Postmaster General, preparing forms of contracts, sending them out and seeing to their execution, examining and preparing for decision all propositions for changes in the mail service, fixing on the location of distributing post offices, directing the course of distribution, providing and sending out mail bags and mail locks and keys, and performing all acts appertaining to post roads which are necessary to put the mails in motion, and regulate their conveyance speed, and connexion.

This office is under the superintendance of S. R. HOBBIE, Esq. First Assistant Postmaster General, to whom all proposals for mail service, and all letters relating to the making or changing of contracts and schedules, to mail bags, locks and keys, and every thing else having reference to the duties of the office, should be directed.

APPOINTMENT OFFICE.

To this office are assigned all questions which relate to the establishment and discontinuance of post offices, changes, of site and names, appointment and removal of postmasters, as also the giving of instructions to postmasters, furnishing them with blanks, and the performance of all other acts necessary to prepare post offices for reception and proper management and distribution of the mails.

This office is under the superintendence of ROBERT JOHNSTON, Esq., Second Assistant Postmaster General, to whom all letters relative to the subjects mentioned above, and all complaints against postmasters, should be directed.

INSPECTION OFFICE.

To this office is assigned the duty of seeing that all postmasters at the beginning and ends of routes, and such others as may be directed by the Postmaster General, keep and return registers of the arrival and departure of the mails, according to law; of examining said registers, noting all delinquencies of contractors, and preparing them for the action of the Postmaster General; receiving and preparing for decision all special complaints against contractors; of seeing that all postmasters render their quarterly accounts according to law and the instructions of the Department, promptly reporting all delinquents to the Appointment Office, and doing all other things which may be necessary to secure a faithful and exact performance of their contract service on the part of contractors, and the prompt rendition of postmasters' quarterly accounts.

This office is under the superintendence of DANIEL COLEMAN, Esq., Third Assistant Postmaster General, to whom all mail registers, all letters complaining of or reporting contractors, and all quarterly accounts of postmasters, should be directed.

POSTMASTER GENERAL.

In addition to the general superintendence of these offices, the Postmaster General reserves to himself the special superintendence of the buisness connected with mail depredations; the payment by postmasters of the balances due from them; the bank accounts of the Department; the opening of dead letters and the disposition of the valuables found in them, and every other matter having relation to the administration of the Department not committed to his three Assistants.

All letters relative to losses in the mail, or mail depredations; all letters from postmasters enclosing certificates of deposite; all letters of banks having reference to their accounts, and all other letters in relation to any matter or thing appertaining to the Department, which is not assigned by law to the Auditor, or by regulation to one of the Assistants, should be addressed to the Postmaster General.

AUDITOR'S OFFICE.

The late law established the office of "Auditor of the Treasury, for the Post Office Department." To this office, the law assigns the duty of settling all accounts of the Post Office Department, whether of postmasters, contractors, or others,

CHARLES K. GARDNER, Esq. is the Auditor, and all accounts against or with the Post Office Department, (other than postmasters' quarterly accounts,) all letters in relation to accounts, all letters inclosing the receipts of contractors, all letters returning drafts on postmasters, and all other letters making claims or explanatory of accounts, should be addressed to him.

MARRIED.

In this city, by Rev Mr Stow, Mr Edwin Knights to Miss Catharine Peterson.

At Portland, Mr P. O. McLellan, of Boston, to Miss Caroline W. Bartels.

DIED.

In this city, John Cargill, infant son of Mr Thomas P. Cushing, 6 months.

Sarah Elizabeth, only child of Braddeck and Matilda Loring.

At Concord, N. H., 17th inst. Mr Daniel S. Wells, of the firm of Wells & Evans, 25, formerly of this city.—This young man, who has thus been taken at an early age from a large circle of relatives and friends, by the mysterious visitations of disease, will be long and affectionately remembered in the community of which he was so lately an active, industrious, and valuable member. It is his best and simplest eulogy, that he was in his lifetime esteemed and is now regretted by all whose business or privilege it was to hold intercourse with him; that his manners and morals, his daily walk and conversation, were such as to secure the universal respect and hearty good will of his numerous acquaintances. He died on Wednesday morning, at two o'clock, of inflammation of the bowels, having endured the long-continued distress accompanying his disease with the most exemplary fortitude, and retaining his senses to the last.

☞ THE ANNIVERSARY of the Newton Theological Institution will take place on Wednesday (TO-MORROW). Services to commence at half past nine o'clock, A. M. MOUNT WASHINGTON HOUSE.

The Subscriber, who formerly kept the United States Hotel, and lately the Pavilion at Saratoga, would respectfully inform the Public that he has taken charge of the new and splendid House (recently erected on the memorable Heights at South Boston) called the Mount Washington House, and that he will be ready on the 11th instant, in the afternoon, and every succeeding afternoon during the week, to attend to Gentlemen who may wish to select rooms, and on Monday the 18th inst. be prepared for the reception of company.

The location of the House, for beauty and variety of prospect and purity of air, is not surpassed by any in this vicinity, it commands an entire view of the Harbor, City and surrounding country, and though but within a few minutes ride or walk of the centre of the City, possesses all the retirement of an inland village.

The internal arrangements of the House are calculated to be of the first order, and every exertion will be used to give satisfaction to its inmates. The House contains about two hundred rooms, has spacious piazzas, a fine promenade on the top, is built in the most thorough manner, and no expense has been spared to render it a safe, convenient and agreeable place of residence. The west wing is particularly appropriated for Ladies and Gentlemen with their families.

There is connected with the House spacious and covenient Bathing Rooms. There is also attached to the establishment a large Stable, capable of accommodating 150 horses, and the facility of several omnibusses which will arrive and leave every half hour, and be in readiness to convey passengers to and from the different Railroad depots, Steamboats, and business part of the City. WRITING & BOOK-KEEPING ESTABLISHMENT, 116 WASHINGTON STREET.

THE object of this institution is to improve the imperfect hand-writing of adults, and to qualify young gentlemen for the Counting House, in a superior and expeditious manner.

PENMANSHIP, COMMERCIAL ARITHMETIC & DOUBLE ENTRY BOOK-KEEING, are taught on an improved plan by which a competent knowledge of those branches may be attained in ONE-THIRD of the time usually devoted to that purpose.

FOSTER'S PRACTICAL PENMANSHIP,

Is so simple and effective as to eradicate the most confirmed scrawl, and to substitute in its place a neat, rapid style of writing, adapted to the practical and every day purposes of life is taught in a practical manner—the learner is exercised in making original entries in the most concise and correct form—in drawing out invoices—account sales—receiving and accepting of bills—averaging by simple and compound equation, &c.

BOOK-KEEPING, BY SINGLE AND DOUBLE ENTRY

Each pupil is taught individually, and not by general explanations which one out of ten might perhaps comprehend at the expense of the other nine. Questions are frequently proposed by the teacher, whilst those of pupils are freely answered and illustrated by cases in point.

The learner opens, posts and balances two complete sets of Books, in which are combined all transactions which can possibly occur in the ordinary course of business, and is thus qualified to act as Book-keeper in the most extensive mercantile establishment.

After the pupil has been made to understand the immutable principles on which the art is founded, the different systems on which books are kept in the city, (including Mr Hartshorn's) are fully illustrated and explained.

Documents copied and translations made either from the French into English, or from the English into French.

NOTICE.

TO CLAIMANTS under the act entitled "An act to carry into effect a convention between the United States and Spain."

The Commissioner under the above act having this day adopted the following orders, they are published for the information of claimants.

Ordered, That all persons having claims under the convention between the United States and Spain, concluded at Madrid on the 17th day of February, 1834, which are to be received by the Board, do file a memorial of the same with the Secretary of this Board, to the end that they may hereafter be duly examined and the validity and amount thereof be decided upon according to the merits of the several cases, and the suitable and authentic testimony concerning them which may be furnished in support thereof. The said memorial must be addressed to this Board; it must set forth minutely and particularly the various facts and circumstances whence the right to prefer such claims is derived; and must be verified by the affidavit of the claimant.

And, in order to prevent unnecessary delay and to expedite the business of this Board, it is further Ordered, That all the proof necessary and sufficient to support the respective claims aforesaid be filed with the Secretary of the Board at the time of filing the respective memorials thereof; or, on or before the first Monday of December next, to which day the Board will adjourn.

And in order that the claimants may be informed what is now considered by the Commissioner as essential to be averred and established, before any such memorial can be received by this Board, it is further Ordered, That each claimant shall declare, in his said memorial, for, and in behalf of whom the said claim is preferred, and whether the amount thereof, and of any part thereof, if allowed, does now, and at the time when said claim arose, did belong solely and absolutely to the said claimant, or any other, and if any other, what person. And in cases of claims preferred for the benefit of any other than the claimant, the memorial to be exhibited must further set forth, when, why, and by what means, and for what consideration, such other has become entitled to the amount, or any part of the amount of said claim.

The memorial required to be exhibited by all claimants, must also set forth and certainly declare, whether the claimant, as well as any other for whose benefit the claim is preferred, is now and at the time when the claim arose, was, a citizen of the United States of America where he is now, and at the time said claim arose, was domicilated, and, if any, what change of domiciliation has since taken place.

The said memorial must also set forth whether the claimant, or any other who may have been at any time entitled to the amount claimed, or any part thereof, hath ever received any, and if any, what sum of money, or other equivalent or indemnification by way of insurance or otherwise, for loss or injury sustained, satisfaction for which is therein asked; and if any such payment or indemnification has been made, to set forth when and from whom the same was received. And that time may be allowed to claimants to prepare and file memorials above mentioned, and the necessary proof, it is further Ordered, That when the Board shall close its present session, it adjourn to meet again on the first Monday of December next, at which time it will proceed to decide whether the memorials, filed with the Secretary, are in conformity to the foregoing orders, and to pass upon the proof and validity of such of them as may be found in conformity to these orders.

Ordered, That the Secretary of this Board do cause three hundred copies of the above orders to be printed for the use of the claimants, and also that the publishers of the laws of the United States at Washington; Portland, in Maine; Portsmouth, in New Hampshire; Boston, in Massachusetts; Providence, in Rhode Island; Hartford, in Connecticut; New York, in the State of New York; Philadelphia, in Pennsylvania; Baltimore, in Maryland; Richmond, in Virginia; Raleigh, in North Carolina; Savannah, in Georgia; New Orleans, in Louisiana; and also the National Intelligencer, in Washington; and the Commercial Advertiser in Salem, Massachusetts, be requested to publish this notice three times a week for six consecutive weeks, and three times in the first week of November next.

LOUIS D. HENRY, Commissioner.
By JOHN I. MUMFORD, Secretary.
WASHINGTON, July 30, 1836.

P. S. All communications relative to claims under the above act, must be addressed to the Secretary, at Washington; and the publishers of the papers designated in the foregoing orders are requested to publish the above notice in conformity to the orders, and to transmit their bills to the Secretary. 3tawis aug 6

THE ROXBURY INDIA RUBBER COMPANY, having completed all their arrangements, and fully succeeded in their experiments for the manufacture of India Rubber Goods on a new and improved principle, are now ready to execute all orders with punctuality and despatch. Their cloths, being now prepared without the use of any solvent in the application of the raw material, are more light, durable and elegant. They are not liable to the objection entertained against all similar articles hitherto manufactured, of a disagreeable odor. They are entirely without scent, unadhesive and pliable. Having, by the newly-discovered process, been subjected to the intensest heat, they cannot be melted under the hottest sun. They are warranted to be perfectly water-proof. A bag, prepared in this way, filled with papers, may lie under water for a year, without the slightest moisture of the papers

As the goods are delivered at and shipped from the manufactory, without the charge of any commission to the Company, and as by the recent ingenious invention, they can be made at less cost, they can be afforded at low rates to all orders forwarded to SAMUEL T. ARMSTRONG, Agent of the Roxbury India Rubber Company, Roxbury, Mass.

PENSION ET ECOLE FRANCAISE ET ANGLAISE, at WASHINGTON CITY. A young lady, fully capable of the English branches of education, including the Piano, Drawing, Embroidery, may obtain a desirable situation in the Seminary of Madame Dorman, where a teacher is wanted in the English Department. The advantage of having two schools, French and English, in the same house, is duly appreciated by parents who wish to have their children taught both languages.

Mad. DORMAN gives her personal attention to teaching in the French Department, and is encouraged and rewarded by the success which has hitherto attended her efforts to impart instruction and advance her pupils in useful and ornamental acquirements.

The French and English Schools will commence the first Monday in September. Comfortable boarding for pupils.

For terms, references, and other particulars, apply (post paid) to Madame Dorman, Pennsylvania Avenue, between 8th and 9th streets, Washington City.

NEW ENGLAND CROWN GLASS.—The New England Crown Glass Company have recently erected a new furnace and are manufacturing an excellent article. Their Crown Glass is thick, pure and of excellent color. Its thickness gives it an advantage over all thin glass, which is liable to crack from contraction in cold weather. Its surface not being polished after being blown, retains its enamel, brilliancy and hardness, and is not liable to the objection which applies to Plate Glass, of being easily and permanently bedimmed by dust.

The New England Crown Glass being purer in color than any other Glass, is preferable for Stores, as it does not tinge the rays of light as they pass through it, and therefore white goods particularly appear to advantage; and it is peculiarly useful for Factories, as some minutes of light may be gained morning and evening, in consequence of the absence of color in this glass. The price of second quality is reduced from the rates heretofore asked.

☞ Those who wish to contract for this Glass are requested to specify NEW ENGLAND CROWN GLASS. As much imposition has been practised by dealers in Glass, by deceptive marks on boxes and other artifices, any purchaser who may apprehend he has been imposed upon is invited by letter or personally to apply to the subscriber for any information he may wish to enable him to detect the deception. Orders sent to the undersigned, at Boston or East Cambridge, or to any at the Company's Selling Agents, will be promptly attended to. Persons wishing the appointment of Selling Agent, can apply to the subscriber by letter or otherwise.

AUCTION SALES.

TAVERN AT AUCTION.

The subscriber, about leaving this part of the country, will sell THIS DAY, (Tuesday) August 23—without reserve, weather fair or foul—at public auction, his valuable estate, centrally situated in Malden, and known as Green's Hotel.—This estate consists of a large two story House, a hall 60 by 30 feet, stable, carriage house and sheds, with all the furniture of said house.

—Also, at the same time and place—

The stock of the stable—consisting of 5 first Horses, 3 Chaises, 2 carryalls, 2 covered wagons—1 market do—1 Baggage do, suitable for two horses—single and double Harnesses, &c.

All the above are nearly new and in good order.

This establishment being about four miles from Boston, and situated in the centre of one of the most flourishing villages in this vicinity, and the only public house in town, affords a chance for a profitable investment to those desirous of doing a public business.

N. B. The sale will commence at 9 o'clock, A. M. precisely, with the premises, then the stock of the stable, and continue till all is sold.

☞ Conditions made known at the time and place of sale.

AUCTION.

On Tuesday, 6th Sept. next, at 3½ o'clock, on the premises,

A large and commodious dwelling house, 2 barns, double carriage house, and from 12 to 15 acres of excellent Land, in the South Village of Woburn, near Medford, on the east side of the Lowell Railroad, and but a few rods from the stopping place there established.

Also at the same time and place—a number of spacious Building Lots, for cottages, houses and manufactories, on the west side of said Railroad, and near the main road to Lowell.

The diversity of sites offered is in consequence of the extent of the whole farm, consisting of about 90 acres, out of which these different lots may be located without damage to each other.

The whole of this farm, is only twenty minutes ride from the city by the cars; the lands are well shaped and suitably elevated, and the Rail Road passes directly through the centre of them. Those wishing to purchase real estate within 20 minutes ride of the city, are requested to come and see;—men cannot always know by hearing. Those wishing to purchase a spacious site for a genteel hotel for boarders, parties, and travellers from Boston to Lowell, Andover and Haverhill, (for the travel from all these places will pass centrally through these lands) are requested to call and see for themselves. For further particulars apply at this office, to Mr Benjamin Brown, Broker, Boston, to the proprietor on the premises, and at Medford, or at No. 9 Elm st. Boston, to the subscriber. A perfect title will be given, and terms of sale liberal.

COTTON FACTORY AT AUCTION.

On Saturday, 27th inst. at 12 o'clock, at City Hall,

Will be sold the valuable Cotton Factory, situated near the high bridge, in New Ipswich, New Hampshire, known by the name of the Souhegan Factory. The property consists of about 7 acres of land—a brick mill, 120 feet by 40, 3 and 4 stories high—two large boarding houses, 2 stories 60 by 28 each—3 one story houses, 2 tenements each—a brick counting room and large wood house. The privilege is the whole of the water of the Souhegan river, under a fall of about 30 feet. The wheel is 30 feet in diameter, with drums, belts, &c. The machinery consists of 1 willow, 2 pickers, 42 cards, doubler, 4 drawing machines, 4 double speeders, 2240 spindles, 3 warpers, 5 dressers, and 67 looms, with other articles and apparatus, too numerous to mention. The machinery was under repair at the time of the decease of Mr Bullard, the principal proprietor, in Feb. 1835, and owing to that event, it has not been operated until very recently, when a gentleman well qualified for the purpose was employed to put it in operation, which is being done. A sample of the goods may be seen at 74 Water st.

The whole will be sold in one lot, and in addition to the sum paid, the purchaser will be charged with the expenditures incurred in putting the mill in operation, so far as it shall have been done, and he will be put in possession of the stock purchased, which may be on hand, and goods manufactured previous to the sale. The property is worthy the attention of capitalists, manufacturers and merchants, who are requested to examine it, and also the title, (which is believed to be perfect) as a quit claim deed only can be given by the committee appointed to sell and convey the property. For a considerable portion of the purchase, a credit of 1, 2 and 3 years, with satisfactory security.

For further information, application may be made to the subscribers, or the superintendent at the mill.

Important !

TO PERSONS SUFFERING FROM RHEUMATIC COMPLAINTS,

To the Editor of the Inquirer :

SIR—On the principles inculcated by the great and good Dr Franklin, to diffuse as widely as possible every means in our power to mitigate or soften the afflictions of suffering humanity, I feel it incumbent upon me to make known through the medium of your useful paper that on reading therein an advertisement of Dr Jebb's Liniment, for the cure of RHEUMATISM, I was forcibly impressed with a belief that it was calculated to remove the severe Rheumatic Affection to which I had been for seven or eight years subjected, sometimes almost depriving me of the use of my limbs. I accordingly procured a Bottle, and before I had used the whole of it, found very sensible relief. This increased my confidence in it, and led me to obtain another bottle, the use of which has completely removed the swellings and pains of my limbs, together with the cramp, and restored them to their wonted vigor.

I am respectfully yours,
GEORGE TAYLOR, JR.

Hempstead, L. I., March 24th.

Persons suffering from the above complaints, and in despair of a cure from the failure of the various remedies they have used, are invited to make trial of this long and celebrated medicine, which has in years passed cured and relieved, as it is now doing, thousands who had despaired of relief. Nothing but a fair trial can give an adequate idea of its unrivalled excellence. It is also one of the best applications known for stiffness of the joints, numbness, sprains and chilblains.

Price 50 cents.

BISBEE'S IMPROVED DOUBLE ACTING FORCE PUMP.—The subscribers have the pleasure to announce to the public, that they have obtained the right to manufacture and sell Bisbee's Improved Force Pump—and persons in want of such an article are invited to examine the same, at Messrs RILEY & KINNEY'S, No 68 and 70 Cornhill. This pump is calculated to supply the place of all others now in use, for drawing and raising water for factories, workshops, public and private houses, or any place where large quantities are required—being simple in its construction and not liable to need repairing—and one person can with perfect ease pump from 60 to 75 gallons per minute. It may be applied to extinguish fires, as it plays a steady stream, throwing the water, like a common engine, as high as ordinary buildings. It is also well adapted for the use of Steamboats, being very compact, not occupying more room than a common house-pump. It has been acknowledged, on examination by scientific men, to save at least one half of the time and strength required by any pump now in use.

In offering this pump to the public, the subscribers feel confident in saying, that it will not only perform all the work above stated with ease, but at a saving of an hundred per cent. in time from the old system. For sale by ENOS WILDER & CO, No 49 Chatham st. eop1m au18

BENJAMIN LORING & CO. 122 State street, have just received by the Cameo, from London, a new article of the Steel Pen, manufactured by Perryian, the original inventor of this most wonderful improvement.

Patent Perryian Regulating Flat Spring Pen.—The flexibility given to this pen by the flat spring is superior to that found in the best quill, it may be made harder or softer, by placing the pen higher or lower in the holder; will write on any sort of paper with the greatest freedom, and never fatigues the hand.

Patent Perryian Regulating Spring Pen.—The novel invention, by means of the regulating spring, commands all the ease and freedom of the best quill; it may also be made harder or softer, to suit the hand or taste of the writer, by simply moving the spring higher or lower, according to the degree of flexibility required.

Patent Perryian Elastic Pen Holder, with appropriate Pens.—The novel construction of the elastic holder, confers in the Pen unequalled advantages, by imparting an agreeable softness and flexibility, rendering it so perfectly unrestrained in its action, that it never fatigues the hand, and enables it to pass over any description of paper with ease and expedition.

Patent Perryian India Rubber Spring Pen.—This novel application of Caoutchoue effects an extraordinary elasticity in the patent pen, and its advantages over the quill must be universally acknowledged.

Patent Perryian Fountain Pen.—Warranted to write more than fifty lines with one dip of ink.

Double Patent Perryian Pen, with patent elastic holder.—This instrument has obtained for the inventor two Patents from His Brittanic Majesty, and also two patents from His Majesty the King of the French, and is used in more than forty government offices.

☞ B. L. & Co. have also on hand twenty other kinds of patent pens, direct from the manufacturers.

SHOE AND LEATHER DEALER'S BANK. Check Books, of various sizes, on the Shoe and Leather Dealers' Bank—for sale by BENJAMIN LORING & CO, 122 State street. au16

BRITISH COLLEGE OF PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS, LONDON.

IT has become a duty to acquaint the public that the genuine Improved Hygeian Vegetable Pills which are prescribed in accordance with the doctrines of the British College of Physicians and Surgeons, London, and which are recommended by the writings and practice of Sir Astley Cooper, Mr Abernethy, and the most eminent Physicians and Practitioners of Europe and America, are signed on the outer cover of every package, in the following lawful and particular manner:

JOSEPH RALPH, M. D.—GRADUATE OF THE UNIVERSITY OF EDINBURGH;—MEMBER OF THE ROYAL COLLEGE OF SURGEONS, LONDON;—LECTURER ON MIDWIFRY AND THE DISEASES OF WOMEN AND CHILDREN;—AND AUTHOR OF THE "FAMILY PHYSICIAN, A DOMESTIC GUIDE TO MEDICINE."

(Note. The various documentt, Diplomas and stamped Certificates, which show the connection of the Author with the Institutionsabove mentioned are publicly exhibited at the General Office, Cortland street, N. Y. and may be seen by any individual at any time.)

Nothing seems to have afforded more general satisfaction and advantage to society, than having the Hygeian Medicine prescribed and prepared by a regular and practical physician, and one who may at all times be consulted or appealed to, either by post or otherwise, on the subject of its operation and disease. This also is the more appreciated in consequence of the number of different medicines which are daily advertised under various pretences in the name of "Hygeian" and "original Hygeian."

The directions which accompany every package of this Domestic Medicine, are exceedingly plain and particular,—the proper dose and management of the Pills being carefully given under the head of each disorder separately. Those who keep this medicine by them, especially country families, find that nothing is more economical or better adapted for family use, and being free from mercury or any hurtful property, they may always be resorted to with perfect safety. Neither is it too much to state with strict regard to truth, that thousands are indebted to this medicine for the preservation of life and eallh.h

The connection which exists between the organs of digestion and almost all deseases, being the basis of this Domestic Medicine, there is scarcely a disorder incident to human nature in which they are not taken advantageously, but those disorders in which the most remarkable instances of benefit and cures have been experienced are the following:—Bilious disorders, Dyspepsia, affections of the head and nervous complaints, with all those various disorders which originate in hot climates or from costive bowels. Also, Fevers, Inflammation, Gout, Rheumatism, Cutaneous Diseases, Jaundice, Liver Complaint, Scrophula, Coughs which threaten Consumption, and especially Gravel, Gleet, and other weaknesses in the Urinary and Geintal organs.

This Medicine also, in a peculiar manner, is adapted to the disorders of the female constitution, both in early and more advanced periods of life.

DR. BRANDRETH

WANTS NO COLLEGE, NO INSTITUTION, NO MONOPOLY, NO CHARTER—HE BEING QUITE SATISFIED TO REST ON THE PATRONAGE OF THE PUBLIC FOR THE SUCCESS OF HIS GRANDFATHER'S VEGETABLE UNIVERSAL PILLS—ESTABLISHED IN ENGLAND IN 1751.

"Science should contribute to the Comfort, Health and Happiness of Mankind."

ON the 18th of May, 1835, these now truly celebrated Pills were first made known in the United States, although in Europe they had been previously before the public nearly a century. The American public naturally viewed them with suspicion, but as on trial they were found what they professed, it was soon displaced by the greatest confidence. They have secured this character, too, under very adverse circumstances, having to contend with the base slanders promulgated by those interested in keeping mankind in a state of error, as regards the functions of their bodies. Dr Brandreth would here impress on his friends and the public generally, that however different may be the action of the pills at different times, that such different action arises not from any alteration in the pills, but from the state of the body they should always be persevered in, until the action is uniform—for they are an effectual assistant of nature, having the same kind of action on the human body that storms and hurricanes have on the air, or that the tides have upon the ocean—they purify. What so judicious as the copying of nature? We see when she wishes to become purified, that she puts herself in commotion, which has the purifying effect. And so we, to induce purity in our bodies, bring about a natural commotion by artificial means, and the experience has taught those who have adopted this course, and who for this purpose have used these pills, that they were in the right, because the result has been sound health, or in other words, every organ has become restored to a state of purity consistent with its functions—and although there is many whose bodies are in such a state of debility and suffering, that all which can reasonably be expected is temporary relief—yet, nevertheless, many persons who have commenced with them under the most trying circumstances of bodily affliction, when every other means and medicine has proved altogether unavailing, have been restored to health and happiness from their use—and the consequence is, they are now recommended by thousands of persons whom they have cured of Consumption, Influenza, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Headache, Pains, and a sense of fullness in the back part of the head, usually the symptoms of Apoplexy, Jaundice, Fever and Ague, Bilious, Scarlet, Typhus, Yellow, and common Fevers of all kinds, Asthma, Gout, Rheumatism, Nervous Diseases, Liver Complaint, Pleurisy, Inward Weakness, Depression of the Spirits, Ruptures, Inflammation, Sore Eyes, Fits, Palsy, Dropsy, Small Pox, Measles, Croup, Coughs, Whooping Cough, Quinsey, Cholic, Cholera Morbus, Gravel, Worms, Dysentery, Deafness, Ringing Noises in the Head, King's Evil, Scrotula, Erysipelas, or St Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, White Swellings, Ulcers, some of 30 years standing, Cancers, Tumors, Swelled Feet and Legs, Piles, Costiveness, all Eruptions of the Skin, Frightful Dreams, Female Complaints of every kind, especially obstructions, relaxations, &c.

8900 testimonials have been received from individuals of the highest respectability. Call at Dr B's store and read the original letters, all proving the extraordinary power of Brandreth's Pills in removing diseases of the most opposite character from the constitution. They in fact prove, by the cures they make, that there is no necessity for any other medicine.

Although Dr B. has enumerated by name the above diseases, he is nevertheless of opinion with his grandfather, the celebrated Dr Wm. Brandreth, that there is only ONE DISEASE, an impurity of the blood, which by impeding the circulation, brings on inflammation, and consequent derangement in the organ or part where such impurity of the blood settles—and that it is the different appearances which this inflammation or derangement puts on, that have caused medical men to designate such appearances by various names, but which are in fact only the same disease, with more or less virulence. Dr Wm. Brandreth was so fully convinced of the truth of the above simple theory, that he spent 30 years in experiment and laborious research into the medicinal properties of the numerous plants composing the Vegetable Kingdom—his object being to compose a medicine which should at once purify, and produce by specific action, a removal of all bad humors from the blood by the stomach and bowels, as by the continuation of the use of such a medicine, such humors are sure to be carried off, and the blood assumes a state of purity—and whoever takes these pills, and perseveres with them, will be satisfied that Dr Wm. Brandreth fully attained his philanthropic object. It is now an absolute and known fact, that every disease, whether it be in the head or feet, in the brain or meanest member—whether it be an outward ulcer, or an inward abscess, are all, though arising from many causes, reducible to this one grand effect, namely, impurity of blood.

In all cases they will be found a safe and simple remedy, yet all powerful for the removal of disease, whether chronic or recent, infectious or otherwise; and what makes them particularly adapted for this country, is, that there is not the slightest liability to cold when taking them—indeed, the system is absolutely less susceptible of cold when under their influence, than at any other time;—therefore, in this climate, they are invaluable. Neither do they require change of diet or care of any kind. In England, these pills have been the only medicine of many families for periods varying from forty to sixty years, and have always proved effectual in restoring health whenever an aberration from it has occurred.

In many cases where the dreadful ravages of ulceration laid bare ligament and bone, and where to all appearance no human means could save life, have patients by the use of these pills, been restored to good health—the devouring disease having been completely eradicated.

In consequence of the pleasantness of their operation, and the dose not generally being required to be more than four or five pills, (merely keeping in view the drain upon the humors) they are fast superseding every other preparation of professed similar import. Cases may occur where it will be very proper to take twenty or even thirty or more pills—this must be considered with reference to highly inflammatory disease, or when great pain is experienced.

As Brandreth's Pills prevent Scurvy, Costiveness, and its consequences, seafaring men, and all travellers to foreign regions, should not be without them, in order to resort to on every occasion of illness.

N. B. Time or climate affects them not.

Southern gentlemen will find this medicine one which will ensure health to the people on their estates.

CANCERS—Several cases of cure can be referred to—the cure is certain, if perseverance in the medicine is used.

CONSUMPTION—Reference can be made to numbers who have been cured in New York and Brooklyn of this disease.

For sale by B. B. MUSSEY, 27 Cornhill, sole agent of Dr Brandreth in Boston. Also, by Ives & Jewett, Salem—M. D. Philips & Co., Worcester—S. H. Colesworthy, Portland, Me.
